History

To boost the morale of the workers after the 1914-18 conflict the Scottish Welfare Football Association (SWFA) was instituted in the latter part of 1918 and became affiliated to the Scottish Football Association in the same year.

Over the last 7 years, the SWFA have seen changes in their national trophies the Templeton Cup, which was gifted by the Templeton Carpet Factory and the Daily Record, which was gifted to the SWFA in 1929/30. Both have now been replaced and the original trophies are now to be seen in the Museum at Hamden Park.

These have been replaced with the Donald McNair Trophy and the Jack Bryson Trophy, both provided from the SWFA through grant aid funding received by the Scottish Football Association. These trophies are played annually over the winter and summer period by all member clubs within the SWFA. In addition, the Highland Welfare Cup (Tom Hunter Memorial) is now played over the summer period by clubs in the North of Scotland and the Rolls Royce Trophy, contested since 1958/59, played for by Associations in membership of the SWFA. All National Cup Competitions will be subject to review over the course of the next twelve months.

Competitions within the SWFA are played over two separate periods, summer being April to March and winter being August to July. On the whole, most summer seasons will run between April and September and most winter seasons will run between August and May. Most summer Associations are to be found in the North of Scotland with Central Scotland playing host to the majority of winter Associations.

The SWFA conduct their business on a monthly basis through the Committee and the Full Committee. Both meet at the Indodrill Stadium, Alloa Athletic FC, Clackmannan Road, Alloa on the second Sunday of every month.

The last few years have been difficult and football continues to face challenges in relation to people willing to participate. The SWFA are no different and the SWFA will maintain their ethos of providing cost free football with a view to assisting people to maintain their health and wellbeing.

The SWFA will also maintain their belief that every player can only register with one club at a time.

Scottish Welfare Football Association – Articles of Association

1. Title

- 1.1 The Association shall be called ‘The Scottish Welfare Football Association’ and shall be affiliated to the Scottish Football Association.

2. Aims, Objectives and Principles

- 2.1 The aim of the Association shall be to foster and develop the game of association football.
- 2.2 The Scottish Welfare Football Association [SWFA] objective is to benefit present and future members of the community served through the SWFA by promoting, encouraging and furthering the game of welfare football as a recreational facility, a sporting activity and a focus for community involvement and aim to improve health and wellbeing.
- 2.3 The binding principles of the association are:
- To facilitate the game of welfare football;
 - To develop and enhance the game of welfare football and nurture the skills of players within our association;
 - To increase our membership;
 - To develop community involvement; and
 - To assist in the training and development of coaching, physiotherapy and first aid.

3. Equality and Diversity

- 3.1 The SWFA believe that the diversity of the Association is important and is committed to tackling discrimination and prejudice in all forms, outlawing all forms of harassment and intimidation from our Association and to provide equality of opportunity for everyone.
- 2.12 The SWFA will not countenance less favourable treatment of anyone on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, ethnicity, gender, age, disability, marital status, religion, or sexual orientation.

3.3 The SWFA will endeavour:

- To fully embrace all our responsibilities and obligations under all relevant legislation to combat discrimination and, in particular, to abide by all relevant Codes of Practice;
- To recruit and retain a membership that reflects the diverse communities with which we work and interact;
- To take action to eradicate discrimination and inequality in all of its forms in the carrying out of our work and, when we employ others to carry out work or provide services on our behalf;
- To consult with our volunteers and to remain open to ideas and suggestions designed to improve our service to our Association members and supporters which include all aspects of football;
- To ensure that our internal and external policy and systems of working and practice reflect and incorporate equality objectives and targets; and
- To provide equal access to training and development ensuring that volunteers can participate fully in the Association and its activities.

2.12 Groups with which we work:

- The SWFA supports the Scottish Football Association's 'Football for All Policy'. Welfare football should be accessible to everyone and so it is important that the right culture is promoted. SWFA Articles, practices and ethos encourages all members to adopt an inclusive and friendly approach to sport;
- The SWFA is committed to promoting equality by treating people fairly and with respect; by recognising inequalities exist, by taking steps to address them and by providing access and opportunities for all members of the community; and
- The SWFA will not tolerate harassment, bullying, abuse or victimisation of any individual, which for the purposes of the Articles of Association and the actions and sanctions applicable is regarded as discrimination, whether physical or verbal. The SWFA will work to ensure that such behaviour is met with the appropriate action in whatever context it occurs.

3.5 The SWFA wishes to ensure that the football and competitions offered are as far reaching as possible, free from discrimination and unfair behaviour and will do everything possible in order to achieve these objectives.

- 3.6 If any incident is brought to the attention of the SWFA, it will be followed up and appropriate action taken.
- 3.7 All members will be held accountable through the policy statement on Equality, which will be reviewed every three years.

4. Public Protection

- 4.1 Every affiliated body wishing to allow players, who are under the age of 18, must have in place a child health and wellbeing policy.
- 4.2 Every affiliated body, club, player, official and volunteer must adhere to the Public Protection Code of Conduct.
- 4.3 All members will be held accountable through the policy statement on Child Protection and Adult Protection, both of which will be reviewed every year at the AGM.
- 4.4 All Member Associations must have an appointed Public Protection Officer (Safeguarding Officer) who will be registered with the Scottish Welfare Football Association. A register of all appointed officials will be held and submitted to the Scottish Football Association.
- 4.5 All Member Association and Clubs must adhere to the Young Players Wellbeing Policy.

5. Social Media

- 5.1 The reputation of the SWFA as an impartial and objective advocate for grass roots football and the communities it serves through programs and advocacy that empower people to reach their full potential, and understand, value, and assert their rights is crucial. All public statements and media interviews are handled by the Audit and Performance Officer and any such requests should be forwarded directly to them. The Audit and Performance Officer will serve as the primary spokespersons for the Association. This means that when a volunteer takes a position or states an opinion publicly (either in person or in writing), she or he does so as a private individual, and the volunteer's function, position, title, and the name of the Association must not be used. It is critical that there is no implication that the volunteer is speaking for the SWFA.

- 5.2 It is also important for all volunteers to understand that the Internet, including social media sites such as facebook.com, is a public forum. On some internet sites such as LinkedIn.com (a site supporting professional networking), volunteers may include their affiliation with SWFA. The Association expects employees, when identified as a SWFA volunteer, to adhere to the SWFA Articles of Association and not to engage in activities on the Internet that might bring the SWFA into disrepute. When identified as a SWFA, volunteers may not:
- 5.2.1 Post any material that is obscene, defamatory, profane, libelous, threatening, harassing, abusive;
 - 5.2.2 Be hateful or embarrassing to another person or any other person or entity. This includes, but is not limited to, comments regarding SWFA volunteers, funders, affiliates, partners and fellow competitors; and
 - 5.2.3 Attack personally current or former fellow volunteers, funders, affiliates, partners and competitors.
- 5.3 For the avoidance of doubt, players, club officials and committee members are classed as volunteers for the purposes of this statement.
- 5.4 Blogs and other forms of online discourse are individual interactions, not corporate communications. Therefore, a volunteer's blog entries legally belong to the volunteer, representing personal thoughts and opinions. It is important to remind members that, posts on any blog are provided 'as is' with no warranties and confer no rights. The opinions expressed on any site shall be the authors own and do not represent those of the SWFA.
- 5.5 All members will be held accountable through the policy statement on Social Media, which will be reviewed every three years.

6. Membership

- 6.1 Application for membership must be made in writing [completing the SWFA application pack] to the Disciplinary and Registration Officer of the Association and shall be signed by the President and Secretary of the association or league seeking admission to become an affiliated body with the SWFA. Clubs registered by associations or leagues will be afforded affiliation for the season that they are registered. This shall be subject to approval by the SWFA Committee on receipt of the letter of declaration.

- 6.2 All application packs, along with all appropriate documentation, will be audited by the CEO as delegated by the SWFA Committee. No application will be granted if the criterion is not met [See appendix 1]. On approval of affiliation, affiliated bodies will be issued with the appropriate certificate of registration. - 6.3 All timelines for registration in both winter and summer will be identified at the Scottish Welfare Football Association's Annual General Meeting.
- 6.4 Clubs in membership of the Association will not be permitted to take part in competitions of any other National Association.
- 6.5 There will be no fee for annual subscription.
- 6.6 Public Liability and Accident Insurance, through the SWFA, are mandatory for membership and will be managed by the SWFA.

 - 6.6.2 It is a mandatory requirement that all clubs affiliating with the Scottish Welfare Football Association register Personal Liability Insurance and Public Liability Insurance and be processed by the Association Committee.
 - 6.6.3 All Insurance should be paid by clubs in line with dates set for affiliation. The cost of Public Liability will be set at the AGM.
 - 6.6.4 Accident Insurance runs from 1 March – 28/29 February for summer clubs and 1 August – 31 July for winter clubs. On receipt of Affiliation Forms, Associations will be given the Insurance Forms and should complete for/with their member clubs and return direct to the Disciplinary and Registration Officer with payment.
 - 6.6.5 Registration through either the winter or summer (or both) will permit clubs to participate in all National Competitions as outlined in National Competitions 1.

- 6.7 The granting of permits or certificates by the SWFA will only be agreed by the Committee when the applicant has met the minimum criteria.
